“ Katy Was one of the sweetest teachers I ever had. We said the Pledge of Allegiance and prayed every morning and I have never forgotten that. I weep with you, her family, over your loss but I rejoice with her over her home going. Heaven is much sweeter with her there. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Bob and family,
Ms. Greene was a remarkable lady. As a student of hers many years ago she was my favorite back then. She was so understanding, kind, loved to help us learn. As I knew her years after I got older she was the same wonderful lady, even more sweet, had a great laugh, and was always helpful in talking to me.
God has called another precious angel home. May your fondest memories bring you peace during this difficult time. God bless each of you. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

There aren't words to express my love for your mom. I worked with her for several years. She was so kind, loving, peaceful lady. She had such a love for her family and friends. I know Bob this is hard for you being there with her all the time. May each one of you find peace in knowing she is with Jim again. My mom (Opal) and her were such good friends too. Prayers to all.
