“ I work as a housekeeper at Genesis healthcare and I would always go in Edna's room and talk to her and help her with whatever she needed. Very loving person. I send my love and prayers to the family. When I read this in the paper my heart dropped and the tears rolled down my face but I loved seeing her everyday I went in she was a good person and I loved her so very much. She is with Jesus and she has no more hurt. I love you Edna see you again one day. Remember her smiling face and she always said let me get my glasses on so I can see you. Gone but not Forgotten Edna.

“ Edna was a true and precious friend of mine for a long time. I met her at Woodland Baptist Church in Winston-Salem, NC. We had many good times together often meeting for lunch downtown when she worked at the insurance agency on 4th Street and I worked at Integon Insurance/GMAC on Spruce Street. She later went to work at Sears at the mall. We were in the same Sunday School class where Edna was our secretary for many years. God bless all her remaining family members. She is now with Jesus and has a new body. Proverbs 3:5-6.

“ To Edna's Family, my love and prayers are with you at this time and will be in the days to come. She was a very good and precious friend of mine at Woodland Baptist Church. We were in the same Sunday School class and often had lunch together when we were both working in downtown Winston-Salem, NC. Not many days went by that we didn't talk by phone. We visited her after she had to move back to her hometown of Sparta, NC. I will always cherish our time spent together and the good memories we made. I had planned to attend her memorial service but unfortunately had a health issue on Thursday of this week. Edna is now in Heaven with Jesus, her mother and father and baby brother as well as all the many friends she had at our church and in the community. God bless all her remaining family. Proverbs 3:5-6.

“ Edna Gibson came to Winston-Salem many years ago, and she made a difference in all the lives she touched. She took great pride in her business education, and used her talents in the years to follow, in the insurance field, and especially through many years of customer service at Sears. Every person was important to her. Edna had a gigantic smile that would warm your heart. She greatly loved the Lord, and her church family....and they loved her. And she loved her own kin, and enjoyed spending more time with them in later years. Edna will always be remembered! Family....Sending you love, and praying for you.
